sage Received.

There is satisfaction in East Liverpool today, for R. W. Tayler will be the next congressman. Mr. Raff is snowed under a mountain of indignant protests against his policy and Jacob S. Coxe, the commonwealer, is no more.

When the polls closed last night there were anxious faces among all parties, although it was generally con-

New York was a pleasing bit of news, while the word from Willie Wilson and Tom Johnson was an expression which pleased the friends of protection, and sent them to their homes filled with the belief that the destroying hands of Democracy will be stayed during the last two years of Cleveland's administration.

CARRIED.

How They See the Returns at Mr. Tayler's Office.

Special to News Review.
New Lisbon, Nov. 7.—Returns from over the district show that R. W. Tayler will be the next congressman, his plurality being 4,000.

In Columbiana county the result shows that Tayler is far ahead of his competitors. The Coxe vote was scattered, although he made his great gains in Washington and Salem townships, and in Liverpool.
His supporters are disappointed because he failed to show well in the central part of the county, where it was expected that he would draw heavily from the Democratic rank. Mr. Tayler is at his office this morning after spending a part of last night in the wigwag listening to the reports as they were read from the stage. He is confident that things are all his way, and has figures to show a plurality of between 7,000 and 8,000 for the congressional ticket.

With 15 precincts from this county not yet in, he finds that over Raff he has 3,420 and about 3,200 over Coxe.
This will give him in the neighborhood of 2,000 in the county of a majority, and a plurality over each of his opponents from 3,500 to 4,000. Stark county gives about 2,000, and Mahoning the same. This will make the Tayler plurality between 7,000 and 8,000. It

Abraham Lincoln to the present date.
The Republican party has been the party of true principle, devoted to the best interests of the great masses ever since its formation. It has been the party of patriotism and love of country; the party of advancement and progress. Dissatisfaction came into our land two years ago, and the people of the land demanded and secured a change: a change from prosperity and good wages to business dissatisfaction and pauper wages, while the wheels of industry were compelled to enforced idleness, and idle men went tramping up and down our land, many of them willing and eager to work.

The reins of government had been placed absolutely in the hands of Democracy, and dismal failure came as the result. Foreign nations have been catered to, and the workmen of other lands have called the Democratic party blessed, while the men of this nation, workmen and mechanics, have been left out in the cold. And as if this burden of woe were not sufficient, the Democratic leaders announced broadcast to the nation that they, the leaders, were not doing anything with the vital interests of the nation, but, in case of success in the present issue, further curse would be brought upon the workmen of the land. And here the people called a halt, and the glorious Republican victory of yesterday is the result. I glory in my vote, straight as usual, directly under the eagle, and shall point with honest pride, with every other true Republican in the land, to the glorious 6th of November, 1894. TRUE REPUBLICANS.

BYE IS COMMISSIONER.

There Was Very Little Cutting on the Ballots.

Special to the News Review.
New Lisbon, Nov. 7.—The fight made against Commissioner Bye did not affect that gentleman's vote a great deal, although he was cut in a small way. The desperate efforts of the Democrats availed nothing for Wallace and he was defeated with the rest of his party. The whole county ticket is elected, and the Republicans here are happy. None of the candidates were cut except the commissioner.

One Result.

If the election returns came the right way, and there is no reason to believe that they have not, there will be great improvements at the Thomas Knob factory. Two additional kilns will be erected, and a large building built without delay.
The company have been waiting a sign of Republican success to make the move. The improvements will be extensive, and will add to the number of men employed in town.

Congratulations.

THE NEWS REVIEW feels compelled to acknowledge the congratulations showed upon it for the excellent service given in election returns last night. The long distance telephone and the Western Union company gave ample opportunity for informing the people of the result, and the News Review took advantage of the service.

Wilson's Defeat sure.

Jason H. Brooks received a message from a cousin who resides in the second district, of West Virginia, this afternoon bearing the word that Wilson was defeated beyond a doubt.
The message was dated a few minutes after 1 o'clock, and is a few minutes later than intelligence bearing the same news from Wheeling.

One Democrat Less.

Agent Adam Hill received a message from New Philadelphia after dinner stating J. A. D. Richards had been defeated in the Seventeenth district for congress. These counties have never been represented by a Republican before, and the district was reported in the morning papers as Democratic.

Taylor Won in Madison.

The returns from Madison came in this afternoon, and showed that Tayler got 88, Raff 71, Coxe 9, Brosius 19. The vote was not small.
Raff getting his full vote, Coxe going five ahead of the Populist ticket, and Tayler losing six. Bye also ran six behind his ticket.

Ahead of the Ticket.

In St. Clair township the total vote was 217, Tayler getting 108, Raff 82, Coxe 9, Brosius 15. Mr. Tayler ran ahead of the ticket, and Coxe was not a consideration.

No Challenging.

One curious feature in connection with the election was the absence of challenging. The cases noted were so small in number as to excite general comment among the election officials. No reason for the unusual occurrence can be found except the fact that all voters were known to these in charge of the polls.

COXEY IN THIRD PLACE.

The Total Vote For Congress in the County.

NEW LISBON, Nov. 7.—The total vote of the county shows Tayler 6,194, Raff 2,523, Coxe 2,440 and Brosius 357.

Totalling to Vote.

It is noticeable that the marking on the ballots yesterday was much better than was ever known under the Australian ballot. It is explained by the fact that instructions are more explicit and voters are becoming better acquainted with the system.

Coxey Won in Negley.

Special to the News Review.

NEGLEY, Nov. 7.—The count here shows that Tayler got 82; Raff, 14, and Coxe, 87. It was expected that Coxe would get a much larger vote than he received. Tayler has also carried Middleton and Hanover.

Some Beta Undecided.

Some wagers placed on the election are undecided as yet, and will not be until the official count is made. They were placed on whether Coxe would be in second or third place.

Taylor in Wellsville.

R. W. Taylor was given in Wellsville votes to the amount of 574; Raff, 218; Coxe, 117. The whole vote was not out, due largely to the bad weather.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Heart Trouble Causes Mrs. Susan McGin-ley's Unexpected Demise.

Heart disease ended the life of a pioneer resident of East Liverpool last night.

The death summons came suddenly to Mrs. Susannah McGinley and before it could be realized that she was even ill the last spark of life had died.
Mrs. McGinley who is well known throughout the city, resided with her only daughter, Mrs. Verbin, opposite the Catholic church on Fifth street.
She had enjoyed good health until two days ago, when she complained of feeling badly. Her illness was not sufficient to confine her to her bed, and she was able to go about as usual when death came. Mrs. Verbin was the only person in the house with her mother at 10:30 o'clock last night, and noticed her grow suddenly faint and gasp for breath.
In a few moments and almost before her daughter could realize it Mrs. Mc-Ginley was dead. Death had resulted from heart trouble.

Deceased was aged 80 years and has resided in East Liverpool for 50 years. her husband being one of the pioneer settlers of the city. He died three years ago and beside Mrs. Verbin only one child James McGinley, of Oregon, is left to mourn her demise. Mrs. Mc-Ginley was known for her kindness and Christian like spirit being a lifelong worker in the Catholic faith.
She was a member of the St. Aloysius church and the funeral will take place from there at 9 o'clock Friday morning.

Feeling the Public.

A pair of vagrants with a strong desire to take the public have been begging in the city and meeting with such success that they should have a wagon load of provisions stored away in some convenient spot. The scheme adopted was to have one of the men blind one arm under his coat and beg. After being successful the other would play the same game. One was white, the other colored, but they worked well together. Several persons threatened to report them to the police.

Died in East End.

Mrs. Smelzenbach, wife of Barney Smelzenbach, died at her home in East End last night after a long illness. The lady has been a patient sufferer, and her death is mourned by many friends. Arrangements have been made to have the funeral take place from her late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Riverview cemetery.

A Quiet Night.

The police were around as usual last night, and more than the usual force was on until this morning. The closing of the saloons had the desired effect, however, and it was found unnecessary to arrest anybody. The night so far as the police were concerned was an unusually quiet one.

Amusing.

Among the amusing sights last night was a Democrat with $5 waiting to bet that Cleveland had carried New York.

THE DEATH OF DORSEY

What His Wife Has to Say This Morning.

HE WAS BEATEN IN THIS PLACE

Mrs. Dorsey Denies that Any Injuries Received in a Fight are Responsible She Claims that Her Husband Drank Too Heavily.

From present appearances the promised sensation in connection with the death of Tom Dorsey will not materialize.

Rumors have been floating for several days, and the News Review has been busily engaged in chasing them down, with varying success. Nothing could be learned of a serious altercation in Wellsville, and Mayor Gilbert smiled when the matter was brought to his notice.
At the late residence of Dorsey his wife was seen, and the story given in detail. Mrs. Dorsey said that her husband was so addicted to the use of intoxicants that the doctors told him of his danger a year ago. He seemed to realize it during the past few months, and has been preparing for the event by drinking harder than ever. Recently he told the attending physician that he had been horribly beaten in Wellsville, but to his wife he said the fight had taken place in this city. Mrs. Dorsey denied the statement that she and several other women had whipped him when he was too sick to defend himself.
She said that death was from whiskey, and the awful condition of her husband was well known to the physician.

Dorsey lived here six years, having kept a saloon during the whole time. He was prominent among sporting men and aided in bringing Denver Smith to the front. He was 41 years old and leaves a wife and child.

Arrangements have not yet been made for the funeral of the unfortunate man, but telegrams are being sent to relatives in the east.

Broken Axle.

Metorman Thomas Smith's car met with an accident at Driven-from-Home this morning. An axle broke letting the car down upon the track.
This caused the other cars to bunch somewhat and all were for a while behind time. It was found necessary to transfer passengers to get traffic started again.

Dangerously Injured.

A man named McNicol, who resides on Fifth street, had a fall the other evening, and was so badly injured that it was feared today that he could not live. The accident happened a few days ago, the injuries being sustained by a fall from a building.

The Drummer Boy of Shiloh.

The Grand army have it in mind to produce the "Drummer Boy of Shiloh" some time during the winter, and will be assisted by members of Company E. It is the intention of the post to make the event a performance of merit.

Attending a Funeral.

Mrs. John Mountford and daughter, Miss Lizzie, left this afternoon for Youngstown, where they will attend the funeral of Mrs. William Mountford tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Mountford will leave tomorrow morning.

Only a Brick.

It has learned that the burglar, who is thought to have disturbed East End residents, is nothing more than a lot of boys, and a brick and a string.
The scare was felt in more than one household.

Out of Jail.

Will Allison, who was arrested by Constable Albright for disturbing a Salvation Army meeting, was released today on payment of the fine. This leaves Mrs. Smith the only occupant of the jail.

A West End Battle.

Three men going home drunk became involved in a fight in the West End last night. One was struck on the head with a billy and another was kicked in the side.

Making Repairs.

The buildings recently damaged by fire on Broadway are being repaired.
The place next to Conkle's bakery will be finished soon as possible.

Feeling Worse.

S. J. Martin, whose injuries were mentioned in the News Review yesterday, is considerably worse today and is confined to his bed.

—Thomas H. Stewart, of Trumbull county, was in the city today calling on friends.

ceeded that the Republicans had carried the city. As the count proceeded the rumor was current that Coxe and Raff were losing on every hand, and the anti-election prognostications would amount to nothing, since Tayler was sweeping the city. The usual crowd, realizing that the News Review never fails in its duty, was present when the first bulletin from New York was pulled in the big window.

As the evening wore away and the news became more cheering many went home satisfied that the result was a glorious Republican victory.
Others remained until the last bit of paper was displayed, and demonstrated their delight by frequent notes of approval. The splendid facilities possessed by the News Review for gathering the vote in the county and district made it possible for information to appear in the window half an hour before it was known elsewhere in the city, a fact which the crowd appreciated. The great gains made by Coxe outside of this place was a surprise to many, as they took the local result as a criterion, but it was to be expected and more than one sound politician did not feel comfortable until Salineville, Salem and Laetonia had been reported. The Democrats could not be found. Knowing that this city had set the pace they reported early and were temporarily saved the rebuke of their national policy. The story told by the bulletins was more than the people asked. They wanted a Republican victory, but few imagined that it would sweep the country.

will require the official count to give the exact vote, and that will not be in for several days. At present it is sure that Mr. Tayler is the congressman, Raff is in second place, and Coxe comes in for third.

The Hole movement which the Democrats attempted to make a heavy part of the campaign came to naught. As near as can be learned at this hour Hole did not count in any way. The total number of votes cast in his favor amounts at present to five.
Whether the missing precincts will bring the return to a higher point remains to be seen. In Salem township, people who had promised to support Hole moved to Coxe, and there is a report that this was cut and dried before election. The vote for Coxe in the northern part of the county fell even shorter than was anticipated.

AT THREE O'CLOCK.

The District has Given Tayler a Good Vote.

Word received this afternoon from Stark and Mahoning counties shows that the district is heavily Republican. Raff did well in Mahoning county, and when all the townships are in it is believed that they will show Coxe in third place, a matter which cannot be decided today.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, NOV. 7.

EAGLE
SCREAM.

EAST LIVERPOOL stood by the party of protection.

THE Eighteenth district is the abode of Republicans.

DEMOCRACY can hibernate for another 30 years. No one will miss the poor thing.

THE people displayed remarkable judgment when they defeated Hill, Wilson, Johnson and Coxe.

THE Massillon people can have Coxey to keep; East Liverpool showed yesterday that it will not have him.

THE people of the district are to be congratulated on the manner in which they lulled incarnated Coxey to sleep.

THE man who pinned his faith to the Democratic party in Columbiana county feels a keen sense of disappointment today.

THE phenomenal Republican gain is the result of a little thinking on the part of the people. They have had enough of Democracy.

HERE'S to you, Bob Taylor. May you never forget that the people of the Eighteenth district expect to hear from you in the next congress.

THE STORY.

The ballots told a pretty story yesterday. They recalled the Republican prosperity of two years ago, and contrasted it with the hard times produced by Democratic principle. They left the beaten path of politics, and seeking the radius of patriotism showed their dislike to Democracy by flying in the face of the pseudo statesmen who have made them miserable.
The great American people told Democracy that their free trade and low duty ideas could not make the nation prosperous and they have returned to the party whose fundamental principle is equity and justice to all. The story is one grand victory for protection, an outburst of approval that will reestablish the grand old sentiment and seat William McKinley in the presidential chair.

GOOD BY, GENERAL.

The fate of Jacob S. Coxey should serve as a warning for other men suffering from a mania for reform. It shows that the American public, having been taught one serious lesson and paid for it in bitter disappointment, will not permit another misfortune to fall upon them by their own hands.
They viewed Coxey with suspicion and looked upon his cause as a cheap device to catch votes. The more intelligent investigated, and did not give him a vote; others gladly shouted his name when called by the bosses, and still others actually believed in the absurd nonsense which he was pleased to call political economy.
Now Coxey has passed by. His brief reign of notoriety is at an end. Let him return to Massillon, take up his mine of sand, and attempt to be a clean, honest citizen. His place is not in politics. Experience is a dear school and it may dawn upon the general that some people can never have any other.

A Party of Aged Ladies.

Mrs. Hartley Ellis entertained a party of ladies yesterday whose ages extend from 76 to 85 years. Some of the ladies were schoolmates, and had not seen each other for 60 years. The ladies were Mrs. and Miss Lawrence, of Beaver; Mrs. Martin, East Palestine; Mrs. Myers, Ashabula; Mrs.
Ferro, Mansfield, and Mrs. Fisher, of this city.

Simply an Excuse.

The canvass arrangements, dignified by the name of vestibules, have been placed on some of the street cars, but save the motemen very little discomfort beyond keeping out the rain. In other places the vestibules are made of wood.

HASTINGS BY 212,664.

Republicans Increase Their Majority in Pennsylvania.

SINGLER ON THE RESULT.

His Newspaper Says the Energy of Pennsylvania Republicans Was Something Magnificent.—Declares the Election an Undoubted Sweep.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Returns from the entire state give Hastings an estimated plurality of 212,664, the greatest Republican majority ever achieved in this state. In 1892 Harrison's plurality in Pennsylvania was 68,747, and Hastings' gain over this is 148,917. Complete returns will undoubtedly swell Hastings' plurality above 240,000, as many of the correspondents were very conservative in their estimates. Not

HASTINGS AND LYON.

one county in the state showed a Democratic gain. Returns were necessarily late because of the heavy vote polled.
The Record, owned by Wm. M. Sing-ler, Democratic candidate for governor, says: "Pennsylvania is a Republican state, but the energy of its Republicanism yesterday was something magnificent.
Evidently the voters have carried to the account of Democracy all of the ill-fortune that has befallen the country as the culmination of Republican misrule, and we suspect there may be hidden under the pile of adverse majorities an A.
P. A. remainder. However it all comes about, it is an undoubted sweep."
"He is a poor soldier, however, who complains of the fortune of war and those only who know how to accept defeat with composure, are capable of moderation and justice when victorious.
To the undaunted Democrats, who stood fast to their colors yesterday, too much honor cannot be awarded. They have been defeated, but not disbanded. In the state, outside of Philadelphia, considering the tidal wave of popular dissent which have overswept the staunchest strongholds of Democracy, the vote for the Democratic candidates is surprisingly large."

Following is the total vote in this city: Hastings, 139,636; Singler, 54,113; Hawley (Pro.), 1,160; Altman (Pro.), 369; Grundy (Socialist-Labor), 795; Hastings' plurality 85,545, a gain over 1892 of 52,380.

A Pittsburgh special says: Returns up to this writing from Pittsburgh, Allegheny, McKeesport and the boroughs and townships indicate majorities of above the estimate made by the Republican chairmen. Fifty precincts in the city of Hastings gave Hastings a majority of 5,635, and the same rate continued to give him fully 17,000 in the city. Fragmentary returns from Allegheny keep up the rate. From the boroughs of the Twenty-fourth congressional district the reports in show tremendous majorities for Hastings, and as far as the ballots have been glanced over they show comparatively little scratching, so it is evident that the Twenty-fourth district will give Acheson a majority far beyond the most sanguine predictions. In the two wards of Carnegie borough Acheson only ran one vote behind Hastings, a remarkable showing for any candidate.

Indications are that a large vote has been polled. Apparently the Republican vote will be little if any below that cast for Harrison in 1892, and it may even exceed that vote. The Democratic vote on the other hand will fall far below the 1892 figures, but the total will be a fair vote for the gubernatorial year, most likely exceeding that of 1890.
It looks as though the Republican majority in this city would be above 17,000 and in the county about 40,000.

C. L. Magee claims the election of Acheson to congress by 10,000.
Wilkes-Barre, Nov. 7.—Returns from 143 districts out of 200 show a Republican gain of 700. The Republicans elect their congressman, Leisenring, by a plurality of not less than 1,400. The Republicans also carry four out of the six legislative districts.

York, Nov. 7.—York county, 11 districts out of 91, gave Stahle, Republican congressional candidate, 120 more votes than the other Republican, who was elected prothonotary last year by over 300 majority.

ALTOONA, Nov. 7.—Blair county estimated 3,500 Republican plurality.
This is the largest ever given. Compared with the vote of 1892, this shows a Republican gain of 1,358. The city of Altoona gives about 1,200 Republican majority.

The Result In Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Full returns from any one congressional district have not been received here. Indications point to an overwhelming Republican triumph in the state. The Republican state committee claims for Owens from 30,000 to 50,000 majority over his opponent, Myers, for secretary of state, thirteen congressmen and both branches of the legislature. Democrats concede 20, 000 Republican majority, but think they will have four congressmen—Bretz, in the Second; Stockslager, in the Third; Holman, in the Fourth, and McNagney, in the Twelfth.

The Election In Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 7.—Returns are coming in exceedingly slow. For delegate to congress the returns are showing well for Cannon, Republican, and the Republicans claim his election by publican by 30,000."

FAULKNER ADMITS DEFEAT.

He Says Indications Point to Republican Control of the House.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Senator Faulkner, the chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, has made the following statement:

"Indications seem to point to a Republican victory in the congressional contest. However, the information I have received does not justify me in giving up the organization of the house by the Democrats; nor does my information justify me in giving up the election of Mr. Wilson. I have men at every doubtful point who will telegraph me as soon as the returns are made. I have received no word from any of them, and am certain that the counts have not been completed. We have won in the Third and Fourth West Virginia districts, but the chairman of the First district admits the election of Dwyer (rep.) by 1,500 to 1,700. That district has undergone the most remarkable change ever known in the politics of the country, due to a great extent to the A. P.
A., and partly to the manufacturing interests. It is supposed that Cummings is defeated by 14 votes in New York city, but that is not sure."

"I understand that our friends in Michigan admit that the Republicans have carried the state and all but two members of congress. We have heard nothing authentic from Wisconsin.
Tarnsey's election in Missouri seems to be in doubt. The A. P. A. has been known of no losses, but several gains, including the seat now held by Murray (colored Republican) of South Carolina.
There seems to be no possibility of a loss of more than one district in Virginia.
If the reports are correct it will be impossible for the Democrats to organize the house. The Republicans are claiming everything, but I pay little attention to their claims. We expect to receive telegrams from every Democratic candidate for congress, and then will have something definite on which to base an estimate."

Senator Faulkner declined to express an opinion of the causes which brought about increased Republican majorities.
Secretary McKee of the Republican congressional committee has given out the following estimate of Republican congressmen elected so far as heard from:

Alabama 2, California 5, Colorado 2, Connecticut 1, Delaware 1, Idaho 1, Indiana 8, Illinois 16, Iowa 11, Kansas 8, Kentucky 3, Louisiana 8, Maine 4, Maryland 2, Massachusetts 13, Michigan 12, Minnesota 7, Missouri 4, Montana 1, Nebraska 5, Nevada 1, New Hampshire 2, New Jersey 5, New York 35, North Carolina 3, North Dakota 1, Ohio 17, Oregon 2, Pennsylvania 24, Rhode Island 2, South Carolina 1, South Dakota 2, Tennessee 3, Vermont 2, Virginia 3, Washington 2, West Virginia 3, perhaps 4; Wisconsin 8, Wyoming 1.
The New York estimate does not include Brooklyn. The total claimed by the Republicans is 218.

A New York dispatch says: Returns show that the next house of representatives will be Republican. The returns now show a gain for the Republicans of ... some gains are indicated by follows: West Virginia, 3; New York, 12; Massachusetts, 4; Maryland 3; Kentucky, 2; Pennsylvania, 5; Illinois, 5; New Jersey, 3; Connecticut, 3; Kansas, 1; Ohio, 6; Indiana, 1; North Carolina, 1; Rhode Island, 2; Michigan, 3; Colorado, 1; Wisconsin, 1. Total, 66.

The Virginia Election.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 7.—Democratic State Chairman J. Taylor Ellison gives out the following: "The returns seem to indicate that we have carried the First and Eighth districts. The news from the Ninth and Tenth districts is not definite enough to warrant an opinion as to the result of the election in those districts, though we have strong hopes of carrying them both."

New Jersey Legislature Republican.

TRENTON, Nov. 7.—Allan L. McDermott, chairman of the Democratic state committee, in a special to The True American says that the Democrats have elected the 11 assemblymen from Hudson by about 2,000 plurality. He says the rest of the state will not be worth hearing from and concedes the legislature to the Republicans.

Republicans Carry California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—The general impression is that Estee, for governor, and nearly all the Republican candidates for state officers have been elected.
For mayor it is general believed Adolph Sutro, Populist, has been elected. The citizens' Non-Partisan candidates for nearly all important city offices are believed to be elected.

Culberson Elected In Texas.

DALLAS, Nov. 7.—The election of Culberson, Democrat, for governor, is conceded by a plurality ranging from 60,000 to 80,000. The Democrats claim a solid congressional delegation, but the election of Crowley in the Tenth district, Crane in the Eleventh, and Houston in the Twelfth is in doubt. The Democrats elect both branches of the legislature.

Democrats Re-Elected In Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—Returns so far received show almost certainty of the re-election of the present Democratic congressmen in the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth districts by about 5,000 majority each, and the election of Charles E. Buck in the Second district to succeed Davey.

Illinois With the Republicans.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The Republican state central committee claims Illinois is Republican by 10,000 plurality. They claim at least 16 congressmen and both branches of the general assembly, which would insure the return of a United States senator. Chicago has gone Republican.

Gov. Nelson Re-Elected.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 7.—It seems likely that Governor Nelson, Republican, is re-elected by an increase over his plurality of 14,000 two years ago. The labor vote has chiefly gone to the Populists, and that party has held most, if not all of its former strength, throughout the state.

Waite Defeated In Colorado.

DENVER, Nov. 7.—The indications are that McIntyre (Rep.) for governor will have 15,000 to 20,000 over Waite (Pop.).
The Times-Sun claims the Republican majority in this (Arapahoe) county will be 20,000, and that the remainder of the state will give a Republican majority of 5,000.

Friends at the White House.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Four members of the cabinet, Private Secretary Thurber and about half a dozen invited guests assembled at the White House last night to hear returns from the elections. The members of the cabinet included Secretary Gresham, Carlisle, Smith and Herbert. They were late in arriving, reaching the house about 9 o'clock and remaining several hours.
The bulletins were received direct from the wire which runs into the executive mansion, and in addition, the party had the full election returns of the press associations.

The president left the white house for the day for his country home at Wood-ley about 5 o'clock and did not return.
The special telephone wire between the white house and Woodley was utilized and bulletins of important results and fuller details in cases in which the president took a particular interest were sent to him at the direction of Mr.
Thurber.

Georgia Elects United States Senators.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 7.—The legislature has elected Hiram Patrick Walsh senator for the short term, ending March, 1895, and Hon. Augustus O.
Bacon of Bibb county for the long term, beginning March, 1895. In the state congressional elections all the Democrats are elected. There was no uneasiness felt in any but the Fourth, Seventh, Ninth and Tenth districts, and in each of those districts Democrats were elected by decisive majorities.

Majorities Beaten In Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 7.—There is little doubt that the Republican state ticket is elected with the exception of governor. This is the result of the great fight made against Majors (rep.) candidate for governor, by the anti-monopoly element. It is estimated that the legislature will be exceedingly close, with prospects in favor of the Republicans.
The only probable chance in the state congressional delegation is in the First (Bryan's) district, which will return Strode (Rep.).

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 7.—The returns from the election in this state indicate the election of all the Democratic nominations, with the possible exception of Denson, in the Seventh, which, at present, seems to be in doubt. The Republicans are very active in the Fourth and Ninth districts, but Robbins and Underwood have good majorities in the Fifth.

Cobb defeats Goodwin, leader of the Populists.

Greenhalge Elected by 45,000.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 7.—The indications are that Massachusetts has given Greenhalge a majority of 45,000, a gain of 10,000 over last year. The probabilities are that 11 out of the 13 congressmen will be elected and that the lower house will easily have a Republican majority. Massachusetts is likely to have a solid Republican delegation in congress.

Evans Elected in South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 7.—There is no doubt that Evans (Dem.) is elected governor by large majority. At this hour it is doubtful whether the vote will be in favor of the calling of a constitutional convention. Democrats will be elected to congress in all districts unless it is in the First, where Elliot, ex-member and Democrat, is running against Murray, present negro congressman from that district.

The Result In North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 7.—Pearson (Fusionist) claims to be elected in the Ninth district. The Fifth district indicates that Settle is probably elected.
Other districts are probably Democratic, but news is very meager. The legislature is Democratic by a greatly reduced majority, and the Democratic state judicial ticket is elected by reduced majorities.

The Fight In Idaho.

BOISE, Ida., Nov. 7.—Both the Democrats and Republicans claim the governorship. The Democrats concede the rest of the state ticket, but the Populists have laid claim to the congressmen. It is the opinion of the most conservative men that the state has gone Republican on the state ticket, congressmen and legislature.

A Republican Succeeds Breckinridge.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 7.—The returns in the Ashland district up to midnight show that Judge George Denny, Jr., is elected over W. C. Owens, Democrat, by from 100 to 300 majority. Owens don't think Denny is the winner. The official count will have to be made before any lets can be paid as the count is close.

Republicans Carry Connecticut.

HARTFORD, Nov. 7.—Returns show that 153 Republicans and 36 Democrats have been elected to the house of representatives. The senate stands 22 Republicans and two Democrats. The Republican majority for the entire state ticket is believed to be about 10,000.

HILL DEFEATED.

Morton Is Elected Governor of New York.

WINS BY OVER 130,000.

Republicans Gain Eight Congressmen and the Legislature.

TAMMANY RECEIVES A HARD BLOW.

Colon Strong and Other Reform Candidates Elected by a Big Majority.—Ex-Mayor Grant and Senator Hill Admit Their Defeat.—Dr. Parkhurst Jubilant Over the Result.—The Election Amendments to the Constitution Adopted.—A New Judiciary Will Now Be Inaugurated.—Pool-selling at Races Will Now Be Prohibited.—Tammany Men Say the Defeat Will Bring About Good Results for the Democracy Two Years Hence.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Republicans have carried New York state by estimated pluralities ranging from 130,000 to 150,000. These figures represent the probable plurality of Levi P. Morton, Republican, for governor, over David B. Hill, Democrat, based upon the vote of New York city and Brooklyn complete, and returns from more than one-half of the election districts above the Harlem river. The total vote for the two leading candidates is considerably in excess of that polled for Flower and Fassett for governor in 1891, in addition to which is the votes cast this year for Everett P. Wheeler, Independent Democrat, which will exceed 20,000. The tremendous Republican sweep in the city and state, it is estimated, has elected 23 Republican congressmen, a gain of eight over the present representation in congress.

It was the expressed belief of those who were conducting the campaign for the Democrats in the state that depreciated majorities below the Harlem for the party there would be offset by increased majorities above that river. The most sanguine expected that the Democratic party with Hill at its head, would show recuperation from the vote given for Maynard in 1893. In place of all anticipated results comes a sweep of such proportions, and from every quarter beyond the highest claims made by the Republicans.

From pluralities ranging from 85,000 to 120,000 in the district below the Harlem for the Democratic party the Republican party turns the city vote into 20,000 plurality for its state candidates. In all the Democratic estimates given on the eve of the election it was contended that the Democratic plurality below the Harlem would be at least 25,000. The surprises are not confined to this change of votes, but an analysis shows that Senator Hill will run behind even the vote of Maynard, while in the state he fell below the vote cast for Governor Flower in 1891. An analysis of such figures as are obtainable shows that the Republican party alone gained by the increased registration for Mr. Morton's vote in all the upper county districts shows large gains over the Fassett vote of 1891. In the cities this same increase in registration appears to have been detrimental to the Democrats.

The vote in Albany county was one of the many surprises of the election. For years Albany county, on state or national issues, has been looked upon as a reliable Democratic stronghold, good for from 1,000 to 2,000 Democratic majority. The Democratic managers, in view of this fact and that it is also the home of Senator Hill, looked for a majority of not less than 2,500. They felt confident that Senator Hill would be given a handsome vote, as Judge Maynard carried the county by a normal Democratic majority, notwithstanding the Republican trend in other portions of the state.

In Monroe, with its Republican city of Rochester, the national Republican plurality was almost doubled, late figures giving Morton 6,000, where, in 1891, the same county only gave to Fassett 3,500. Remsenhaver county, the home of Senator Murphy, held as closely to the Democratic normal vote as any in the state. The county only fell off about 800, while its neighbor, Albany, lost about 2,600.

The results of the sweeping victory are more far-reaching than simply the election of the Republican state ticket. While the returns are very incomplete on the election amendments, it is highly 1871, the year in which the revolutions concerning the operations of Tweed were made, has there been such an opposition arrayed against Tammany, and the returns show that a severe blow has been struck at the foundation of the most powerful local political organization in the country.

The scene on Newspaper row when it was conceded by the Democratic organs that Morton had won the governorship and Strong the majority, was one of wild enthusiasm.

When the newspaper bulletins and stereopticons began to display returns about 6 o'clock, there were about 2,000 persons on Park row, but during the following two hours the crowd was augmented by a continuous stream of people from the uptown districts. By 8 o'clock fully 10,000 people thronged the thoroughfare, blocking the cars and impeding the horse and cable car traffic. When the concessions by the Democrats were announced there seemed to be three Republicans to one Democrat present.

The assembly was a very orderly one, and it seemed to be composed of a more respectable class than that which usually visits Park row on election night.

The Tammany men, who were downtown, had no excuse to offer for their overwhelming defeat, and one of the leaders said: "This will lead to a thorough reorganization of the Democratic party in this city, and it will bring about good results two years from now."

Ex-Mayor Grant has made the following statement: "I am defeated. On the retirement of Mr. Straus I thought it my duty to the Democratic party to accept its nomination for mayor of this city. I made my canvass on Democratic issues and have gone down with my party. The principles of the party are essential to the life of the republic. Victories will be won in the future as they have in the past. It is the duty of all Democrats to present a solid front to the common enemy. Democrats never work as well together as in the hour of defeat. All differences will be laid aside, and the Democratic vote of this city will be preserved as the cornerstone of Democracy for the presidential contest of 1896.

Dr. Parkhurst said: "We've won. This great victory shows the people have their eyes open at last. It is evident that the public conscience has at last been awakened. We've got all these people that the reform movement has been fighting just where they had us."

The state has gone Republican by from 130,000 to 150,000 plurality.

The following congressmen are elected: Seventh district—Austin E. Walsh, Tammany; Ninth district—Henry C. Miner, Tammany; Tenth district—Andrew J. Campbell, rep.; Eleventh district—Ferdinand Erdman, rep.; Twelfth district—George B. McClelland, Tammany; Thirteenth district, Robert C. Shannon, rep.; Fourteenth district—L. E. Quigg, rep.; Fifteenth district—Philip B. Low, rep.

Police Commissioner Martine (Tammany) says Tammany will not have a single office.

The total vote for mayor was: Strong, 152,691; Grant, 111,257; Strong over Grant, 41,434.

An Albany dispatch says: Senator Hill last night refused to say anything on the result of the election for publication, but will give out a statement to-day. He, however, admits his defeat.

WOMEN AT THE POLLS.

They Do Hard Electioneering in Colorado. Test Case in Indiana.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 7.—The leading feature of the election here was the voting of the women. All day long the private carriages of the Capitol Hill society leaders carried women voters to the polls. In many cases the ladies owing the turnouts went with them to urge the voters to make use of their franchises. Among the women who took an active part were Mrs. Sue M. Hall, wife of the well-known Colorado historian, Frank Hall, at present city treasurer of Denver; Mrs. David H. Moffat, wife of the president of the First National bank and one of the most extensive mine owners in the state; and Mrs. Routt, wife of the ex-governor.

Their homes have been repeatedly thrown open for receptions to candidates during the campaign, while their personal services were given freely to the work of spreading campaign arguments and yesterday were devoted to increasing the vote for their favorite candidates. The society ladies are not, however, the only ones who were in evidence at the polls. The housewives were also there. In many precincts the women acted as judges and clerks. The ladies made no special effort for the candidates of their own sex, but voted as earnest partisans.

A Lafayette (Ind.) dispatch says: The most notable feature of the election in this city was the appearance of Mrs. Helen M. Gougar at a ward voting precinct, demanding the privilege of suffrage. By previous arrangement with the election board every courtesy was extended and she was permitted to enter the booth, ask for state, county and township ballot, and she was refused each of the grounds of sex. She then demanded the privilege to make an affidavit of her citizenship, which was denied her on the same ground. She was accompanied by her husband and next best friend, legal her husband, who were witnesses to her demand. This is a test vote for a case to be carried to the supreme court.

Kansas Goes Republican.

LOCAL BREVITIES

An unknown man fell from a street car on Sixth street last night and cut his face. He was drunk.

Some of the Coxey men believed that their man would win, and placed money on his chances. Mr. Cooper, of Sixth street, got $25 from one enthusiast.

Maanger Swaney, of the telephone company, arranged for an especially good service last night, and had the lines open until long after midnight. Long-distance instruments are being put in today.

The employees of the East End pottery worked yesterday, and are gradually dropping into the arrangement of the new factory. All praise the new plant, and speak well of its prospects.

The social given by the Elks in their rooms last night was one of the most pleasant of the season, a large number of the members and their ladies being present. Dancing was indulged in and the amusement continued until a late hour.

A man and wife were about to board the 3:36 west bound train at the local depot yesterday afternoon when the lady was taken suddenly ill and it was some time before she could be restored. The employees of the station gave all possible aid and the pair finally left for a hotel.

East End was in darkness again last night and numerous of the residents kicked as they waded through the unlighted streets and sidewalks. They claim that although they have been in sympathy with the light company in their misfortunes, they should have more attention paid them now.

A young man with too much liquor aboard tried to raise a disturbance outside the rink last night, and would probably have succeeded had not a friend happened by and spirited him away. It was the means of saving him a fine as officers were inside the door and were about to be called on to quell him.

Not long ago Mrs. Lou Steinfeld wrote to Professor Bernard, of Lick observatory, asking him the correct pronunciation of his name, as she desired to give it to her young son. In a few days the professor answered in a personal name, enclosing one of his photographs and expressing thanks for the high compliment paid him by the lady.

The funeral of Miss Maude, daughter of Frank Earle, of the Calcutta road, took place from the Second Methodist Episcopal church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Many of the young friends of the deceased attended and listened to a touching sermon by Reverend Huston. The remains were laid to rest in Riverview cemetery.

If rumor is to be believed there will be serious trouble between a heretofore loving couple in the hill district. Jealousy has been the cause of one dispute which came near ending in a divorce suit, and now the same old green eyed monster is at work. Neighbors are trying everything to effect a settlement but have met with slow progress.

Iroquois tribe No. 40, Red Men, gave a grand ball in the Fifth street rink last night and it was a decided success. About 300 people attended and tripped the light fantastic until 2 o'clock this morning. The election returns as they were read brought forth cheers and loud applause at different times, especially when the total city vote was read.

Street car 31 has been fitted out with a canvas front or improvised vestibule, and all the cars in turn will be made ready for winter. The proposed action of the motormen, as mentioned in the News Review a few weeks ago, has not yet been taken, but there are reasons to believe that something will be done. They still kick for box vestibules.

The river and the hopes of rivermen are rising. It is announced that the Courier will be here on Saturday and the Lizzie Bay and Ben Hur will pass up on Sunday. Strong hopes are entertained that the river will reach a good boating stage, and permit some of the big towboats to get back to Pittsburg. Cincinnati packets are expected next week if all goes well.

The remains of Mrs. John Gilgrist whodled on Monday last were taken to Brilliant on the afternoon train yesterday. The funeral took place from the home of a relative of the family there at 10 o'clock today with interment in the Brilliant cemetery. Among the immediate relatives of the deceased who attended the funeral were Mrs. Trainor and son, Frank, of Simms addition.

Work at the light plant is progressing as rapidly as possible, and there is a hum about the place which shows the energy displayed. The damaged machinery has been hauled to the wharf and will be shipped to Cincinnati as soon as a boat comes along. It is thought that all the lights will be on in a night or two, and a good service given. The company deducted the cost of light for one night in their October bills.

DANGLER RADIATOR.

NO. 302.

Size 11x24x34.

This radiator, new in principle and exclusively our own, has the burner at the bottom of the center tube, opposite the small door in front, making a sure and convenient means of lighting. The direct heat passes up the center tube and down the outside tubes to the base, discharging through the ornamental grating in front of the base. This grating can be easily removed for dusting. The direct heat, being held in the tubes in its passage to the base, makes the radiated air very hot, and with the direct heat discharged near the floor, makes this principle of heating economical, convenient and perfect.

WEARY OF HIS WIFE
A Salem Man Asks For a Divorce.

TEN YEARS SINCE MARRIAGE
A Serious Charge—Josiah Believed He Was Deceived by the Pride of His Heart, and Thinks the Court Should Annul the Contract.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.
NEW LISBON, Nov. 7.—Josiah Sen-saubaugh, a Salem man, filed the necessary papers today asking for a divorce from his wife Millie. He claims that she deceived him at the time of their marriage in order to induce him to marry her. They were married in New Lisbon ten years ago, and he had every reason to believe that she was chaste and virtuous until convinced soon after the ceremony that all was not well. He discovered enough evidence to justify his leaving her, and now he asks that the court give him a divorce.

O. Dannimiller & Son brought suit against Mrs. Florence M. Morgan to recover judgment for $147.56, the amount of a bill which she will not pay. Court convened this afternoon for the first time today, and took up an interesting case from Washington township. James Sharp, executor of the estate of the late Richard McPherson, asked to have judgment regarding the provisions of the will. The case involves an important point in law.

The papers in the case of Mary Thompson against Roy Rinehart were sent here today from the court of Mayor Gilbert and filed.

RISINGER & LEEK.
Watch Out for Our Townsmen in Their New Quarters.

Risinger & Leek, now occupying a room in the Ickit block, will remove to the Watson block, Sixth street, next week, where they will not only carry on the confectionery and candy business, but will have constantly on hand the best and freshest of oysters, selling by the pint, quart and gallon. They will also have a fine lunch counter, and will furnish lunches unequalled in the city.

In the way of the candies they will furnish the nicest goods the market affords, making this a special feature for the holiday trade. They will furnish you anything you desire in the candy and confectionery line, from the common to the finest goods manufactured. Watch out for the opening in the new quarters on Sixth street next week.

By the way, don't forget that Risinger & Leek's place of business is headquarters for J. B. Rowe's famous bread, cakes and pies. Orders received for the baking of goods for special occasions.

Doctor Crawford's description of the preaching of "Savonarola" was a magnificent piece of word painting and pathos, everyone in the audience hanging breathlessly on his words. No more magnificent lecture has ever been heard in Lexington. Lexington Transcript. At the Grand Opera House Wednesday night.

Lost Paradise.

Doctor Crawford at the Grand Opera House Friday night. Subject "Savonarola, the Italian Reformer."

At the Grand.
The "Orphans of New York" should draw a large audience to the Grand tomorrow evening. The piece is elaborately mounted, presenting a great quantity of new scenery and many new costumes. The play is realistic.

—Wilson in Doubt.

Doverer Elected to Congress in the Wheeling District.

WHEELING, Nov. 7.—Returns from one-fourth of the city and scattered figures from other points in the First congressional district indicate the election of Captain B. B. Doverer (rep.) by not less than 2,000 majority. Fifteen precincts of Ohio county, casting about two-fifths of the vote, shows a Republican majority of 400. The Democratic majority in the county in 1892 was 106.

From the Second district the returns are scattered and meagre, but indicate a small net Republican gain. Whether this will be sufficient to defeat Mr. Wilson is problematical, as the heavy Democratic counties cannot yet be heard from. From the Third and Fourth districts the figures are too meagre to base any estimate upon. The Republicans claim a majority of the state house of delegates.

The Republican state central committee claims that Wilson is defeated for congress by 10,000. They also claim that Huling, Republican, is elected by a safe majority. Governor, Republican, carries the First congressional district.

Chairman Dawson says the legislature will be about 20 on joint ballot, and the state is Republican on the popular vote. All four Republican candidates for congress are probably elected.

Republicans are claiming the state by 5,000.

Easily Satisfied.

At the World's fair it was amusing to note the diversity of objects which visitors found the most interesting. One instance was that of an old couple, weary looking and bundle laden, who asked a guard where the Minnesota building could be found. He indicated the direction.

"Is it far?" asked the man.

"Yes, about half a mile from here."

"Oh, dear! Well, come, Mary, we'll put her through now we're here," said the old man, shouldering his heavy bundle.

But the woman was more garrulous. She detained the guard long enough to explain that they lived in Minnesota 12 years and then moved to Ohio. Now they were going back to Minnesota.

"We was going through Chicago, so we just stopped off two hours to see the fair. We don't keer much for fairs any way. All we want to see is the Minnesota building, an we are bound to see that if it takes half a day!"—Youth's Companion.

Flies on the Wing.

A Russian has discovered by patient research that the wings of a fly vibrate 330 times in a second, from which he infers that a fly can perform the distance of one kilometer per minute, which is the rate of speed of an express train. By flying straight in one direction without stopping a fly could travel round the world in less than 28 days.
